Introduction

Amazing, introductory ideas that provide unique insight into your field of interest and “wows” your professor—formatted based on Kate L. Turabian’s A Manual for Writers of Research Papers, Theses, and Dissertations (8th edition).

An Interesting Section

Great thoughts that further your argument. This includes lots of strong evidence presented throughout several paragraphs, each accompanied by necessary citations.

Here is a block quotation—a passage from a text you found insightful and wanted to share with others. Maybe it is from a journal article, website, or book. Irrespective, it should support the argument being made.<sup>1</sup>

Maybe a sentence or two that bring the argument and evidence together.<sup>2</sup>

Another Insightful Section

More ideas that really make this a great paper. Maybe a footnote or two.<sup>3</sup>

Conclusions

At this point, you’ve changed everything (including your marks!). Time to wrap up!
